FOOLING THE GERMANS

The Wortwats, under the heading, "This is the Right Man," gives Count von Roon's views of what Germany's peace terms should be, as set forth by him in the Gorlitz Nachrichten. According to von Roon, Germany now has "the power, which our victory has given us, to prescribe for our overthrown adversaries the following conditions:"

Autonomy of Flanders.
 Cession of Longwy and Briey (French coal and mineral area), and the frontier regions lying in front of them.

The surrender of the entire British navy to Germany.

Count Roon requires, besides the restoration of Egypt to Turkey, that Serbia and Montenegro shall be given to Austria and Bulgaria, and a war indemnity of about 180 million marks (about $45,000,000.00), for which America is to be responsible. France and Belgium are to remain occupied by Germany until this sum is paid.

The Wortwats asks whether von Roon, who is a member of the Prussian upper house, desires by means of this program to bring himself to the favorable notice of Pan-Germans as the successor to Kuhlmann.

STEVENS AND HENRY

It appears from a man-up-a-tree viewpoint that the candidates for governor after the primaries will be Henry on the Democratic ticket and Stevens for the Republicans. Although every man is now a dry advocate, it appears that Governor Stevens has the lead in that respect and will get the most of the dry votes, which should give him a good lead in his race. Then, too, the governor has all the machinery of the state government which will be staunch supporters in the campaign and although this may be overcome by Henry who is an indefatigable campaigner, he will have a lot of work to do before the election in November. This appears to be the situation today, but at this stage of the game politics is subject to rapid changes and there may be a different aspect next week.

PATRIOTIC MARTINEZ

The people of Martinez have been considerably wrought up during the past week over what appeared to be a case of flagrant disrespect to the American flag on the part of a man by the name of G. H. van Senden, superintendent of the Shell Oil refinery at that place. It appears that van Senden ordered one of his men to take down an American flag flying over one of the stills and the flag was taken down, whereat all the patriotic men working for the company strenuously objected. In a long statement to the press, which was sworn to by the superintendent, he tells the public that he is a patriotic citizen and has every respect for the American flag and all it represents. He explains that he did not intend any disrespect for the flag, but objected to its flying over any particular unit of the plant; that one is displayed at the gate of the works and one over the office and he thought that was enough. After the explanation, it does not appear what the people of Martinez think about the affair, but there has always been an impression over the country that the Shell plant in Martinez is not a very strong

FOOLISH PRAYER TALK

The people of England as well as those of her allies will lend a patient ear to the expression of the Marquis of Lansdowne concerning the desirability of peace discussions.

Lord Lansdowne is a conservative pacifist, and while admitting that "sooner than accept a dishonorable peace, we all are willing to fight to the bitter end," he contends that there already exists a means for ending bloodshed which at the same time offers a possibility, through discussion, of coming to terms honorable to the allies.

He neglects to make clear, however, how such a goal may be reached. Even if the allies were willing to declare an armistice while peace discussions were undertaken there are innumerable reasons why such a procedure should be opposed. The Germans are not likely to conduct their peace negotiations with a greater degree of fairness than they conduct war. The world has learned it may never again rely on the word of a German statesman. That is the first stumbling block in the road to peace by agreement.

The military party is still the strong party in the central empires. As long as it remains powerful there can be no peace conversations which will lead anywhere but back to the battle fields. Lord Lansdowne is no doubt sincere in his wish to stop the terrible loss the world is suffering. Everyone is sincere in that. He is probably no less sincere in his belief it may be stopped by the simple process of calling an armistice, but he misses, or refuses to recognize the main point; that an army can be beaten only with a greater army and not with words.

It would be better if Lord Lansdowne would abstain from putting forth peace talk altogether. His recent statement will be published in Germany to show the people that England is "crying for peace." It will give renewed hope that victory may yet be won, and in that way prolong the fighting.

SPECULATING ON FUTURES

In his Breakfast Table Talks Oliver Wendell Holmes put a good many wise sayings into the mouth of the autocrat, quaint New England philosophy which has been read by two generations with growing relish.

Holmes was a physician of considerable note, and while professor of anatomy and physiology at the Harvard medical school he made a number of important medical discoveries. It will be by his philosophical works, however, that he is longest remembered.

Dr. Holmes liked to speculate on the future. In one of his Breakfast Table Talks, in which the boarders are discussing what the daily news of the world might be like two thousand years hence, he has the post wonder if men will have succeeded in flying by then.

That was a little more than twenty-five years ago.

RESTAURANT CHANGED HANDS

Not One Chinese in Ten Thousand Has Constipation

except a few drug users, while about 95 per cent of the Americans suffer
from this dread complaint. The
FONG WAN
HERB SPECIAL
TINCTURE gives the following explanation of this phenomenon. "When a Chinese is ill, he immediately consults a Herb Specialist and the cause is removed, but when an American feels bad, the first thing he does is to take a PHYSIC. This may relieve him temporarily, but repeated doses of such drugs eventually paralyze the bowels. As the bowels then no longer move naturally, physic taking becomes a habit, the weakened bowels drag, and there is a heavy pressure of gas on the rectum. If the poor victim be a woman, the physician will usually tell him that his trouble is piles; if a woman, that it is female trouble."
By drinking the Fong Wan herbless Chinese herbs, hundreds of Americans have not only been relieved of their stomach and bowel troubles, but have been made normal again. Their testimonials are on file.

Boiling Points vs Gravity Test

Boiling points are the real test of gasoline value. The old gravity test tells nothing about the carbureting and combustive qualities of gasoline.

Boiling points are vaporizing points. In straight-distilled, all-refinery Red Crown gasoline they form a continuous, uniform chain.

Combustion starts with the lowest boiling points and flashes on through the medium to the highest. The complete chain is necessary for instantaneous, full-powered combustion.
Eliminate one link and the power chain is broken.

Red Crown, the Gasoline of Quality, has the full and complete chain of boiling points necessary for steady, dependable power: Low boiling points for easy starting, medium boiling points for quick and smooth acceleration, and high boiling points for power and mileage.

Look for the Red Crown sign before you fill.

NEW BOOKS OF WEEK AT PUBLIC LIBRARY

"The All Highest Goes to Jerusalem" (A satire on the Emperor of Germany published twenty years ago in "Le Rite," of Paris, on the occasion of the Kaiser's journey to Constantinople and the Holy Land).

"Church Advertising: Its Why and How" (Ashley). A series of papers by various ministers telling of actual church advertising and showing that it pays even the church to advertise.

"Dead or Alive." A study of the present conditions of the local church, with a constructive program of the activities which ought to characterize most churches of medium size in an ordinary community.

"Handbook of the War for Public Speakers" (Hart). A collection of extracts and other helps for public speakers prepared for the Committee on Patriotism through Education of the National Security League.

"Home Gardening" (Albaugh). Still another book on that most popular occupation, the War Garden. This one gives the famous Sandwich System of gardening as applied to the growing of both vegetables and flowers in very small spaces.

"The Negro in Literature and Art" (Brawley). Chapters on Phillips, Wheatly, Paul Laurence Dunbar, Chas. C. Chester, W. E. B. DuBois and Wm. B. DuBois, writers. Also Wm. B. DuBois, sculptor and Henry O. Tanner, artist, as well as other famous negroes.

"Newspaper Service" (Head). The problem of newspaper employment in relation to the work of the public schools. A study in educational and vocational guidance based on conditions in Seattle.

"Pilgrims of Hawaii" (Gluck). Two grandchildren of missionaries tell the story of the Christian missions in Hawaii which were founded one hundred years ago by New England missionaries. The main part of the book is made up of interesting extracts from the journals and letters of the missionaries themselves.

"Story-Telling for upper grade teachers" (Crosby). In addition to how and what to tell, many stories are given suitable for telling to older children, Boy Scouts and Campfire girls.

"Textile and Costume Design" (Ellsworth). Traces the development of dress from the time of the early Egyptians down to modern times, with practical hints on modern dress for all who are interested in tasteful clothing.

"Voice of Lincoln" (Wanamaker). A new Lincoln book. By many extracts from the great man's own writings Judge Wanamaker shows what Lincoln's philosophy of life was and what were his views on the powers and purposes of government.

"War-Time Breads and Cakes" (Handy). Practical recipes calling for the wheat flour substitutes that we are asked to use.

"The actual John Good" (Scandin). The true story of a so-called "incorrigible" who after years in prison finds re-generation and the way to a useful life through the Bowery Mission in New York.

Tenth Street Church and the other at the Point Church. Preaching service at 11 a. m. Sermon subject: "The Christian's Trail."

The B. Y. F. U. will meet at 7 p. m. for reorganization and regular prayer meeting. Preaching service at 8 p. m. The sermon subject will be: "The Reorganizing Station of the Red-Light District."

Prayer meeting and Bible study next Wednesday at the Tenth St. church.

WESLEY SUNDAY SCHOOL HAVE PICNIC AT EAST SHORE

The children of the Wesley Methodist church are holding a picnic today at East Shore Park. Three or four hundred happy boys and girls went down to the park this morning in charge of number of adult chaperones and they have been enjoying a day of great sport.

Luncheon was taken along for everybody and at the beautiful park there were games and all sorts of events to interest the youthful mind. Suitable prizes were awarded for those who excelled in the various contests, the prizes being thrift stamps. Those comprising the committee in charge of the event were: George Long, Harold Gardner, Dudley Kirkpatrick, W. C. Roberts, Mrs. B. Hanner, Mrs. R. W. Byrn, Mrs. C. Frymire, Carrie Oakley, Annie Smith.

TO ALL PATRIOTIC CITIZENS

The following appeal to patriotism is issued by the Power Administrator appointed by the Railroad Commission of the State of California:

Conserve Electricity

Patriotism demands that you save electricity for war industries.

Northern and Central California have a SERIOUS power shortage because of lack of rain during the past winter and the increased use of electricity by war industries.

These War Industries Must Have Power

There is not enough power for everybody at the present rate of consumption. It is up to you to save. Turn off lights whenever possible and use lower power lamps.

This is one other thing you can do in the great struggle.
H. G. BUTLER
Power Administrator.
